

Managerial and Exempt State Employees: Let's Talk About Your Future!

We are hosting a series of lunch-time meetings on the topic of labor representation and the issues facing managerial and exempted state employees. Come to a meeting to discuss the path forward and help plan to use political and legislative advocacy to achieve our shared goals.

ALL managers, HR and payroll department employees — anyone not currently represented by a union is invited to attend. Feel free to bring a lunch to the meeting most convenient for you:
